

Sponsorship Opportunities

15th Annual ADHD Conference

The Centre for ADHD Awareness, Canada is a national charity dedicated to leadership in awareness, education, and advocacy for ADHD across Canada. When you give to CADDAC, you're helping improve the lives of Canadians affected by ADHD, creating awareness and reducing the stigma of ADHD.

Benefits of Sponsoring:

- Increased Visibility And Revenue
- Highlighting corporate social responsibility
- Brand Visibility
- Targeted Marketing
- Client Perception and Community Goodwill
- Networking without being there!

Sponsorship is an effective way to help grow awareness about your brand and your business. It is an important strategy to help you engage authentically with your local community and has many mutual intrinsic and extrinsic benefits for both the Sponsor and the Recipient.
